

INTERGENERATIONAL EVENT

DRUM CALL!!!

Rhythms & Stories

Combining culture and history, power, and play through Indigenous and Asian drumming

We are excited to partner with Standing Nation Drum Group and Uminari Taiko for this amazing interactive free workshop!

At Rhythms & Stories you can learn about Standing Nation Drum's use of "Pow Wow" drumming using vocables with the majority of songs coming from the Anishnabe tradition, and Taiko kata and 'ki', as the workshop leaders take you through skills, drills, and rhythms.

Join us as we enhance movement, creativity, communication and play!

Sunday, December 1st

10:30am - 1:30pm

Bert Richman Auditorium at Gordon Head Rec. Centre

4100 Lambrick Way (off Feltham Road)

Bring along your own percussion instruments to share in the circle!

Space is limited so please register by contacting info@antidotenetwork.org by Thursday, November 28